Tatung Einstein 1980's computer, sold as not working for parts or repair
Model TC01

We originally bought this computer in around 1985 and it was working when packed away in mid 1990's but although power lights come on
Might be an easy repair but beyond my experience.
Many happy childhood memories of this machine.

With original box and original Tatung colour screen

Original Manuals also included

Due to weight of screen, collection from Boroughbridge, North Yorkshire is preferred.
