Tatung einstein Vintage Computer. Condition is "For parts or not working".

This came from an office removal job. Unfortunately don't know whether it works or not due to not having the cable to connect the computer to the monitor. Tbh i ju will accept reasonable offers.

All i can really tell you is that the monitor turns on and illuminates and the lights on the front of the einstein itself light up and it appears to power on.

I would not knowingly sell broken items please check my positive feedback. However on this item the risk is on the buyer as it comes with no guarentees. Please see to answer if i can.

It's listed as collection only due to the monitor being heavy and fragile. Please contact me if you just want the computer, i can arrange shipping and i will likely just Collection from EN63JN or N87DA.
