Offered here is a very RARE Tatung TC 01 Einstein computer. I powered it up and it seems to work fine. This one has the optical manuals and startup disk although I had problems getting the startup disk to load. However it did load other disks I have so I am original startup disk is included. Not sure how to access the 2nd drive so it was not tested. This one has a very low serial # of 5 were hand signed under the lid by one of the developers. This one has the hand written signature. Keyboard works great! The and shows very little if any yellowing. Amazingly, this comes in its original box with interior packaging. Nice example of this exq considering it still works after nearly 40 years! Please see photos as they are a large part of the physical description. Here is a excellent condition. 220v/pal. Sold "as is" "Parts or Repair" due to age of electronics and no returns. I will not warranty machin damaged, it will be fully insured. After all it is nearly 40 years old. Buyer pays shipping. Thanks for looking.. I ship worldwide b expensive. Maybe 2-300. Shipping is estimated. Please check out my other listings.
